

Privacy Policy

Wey Valley Chess-Surrey is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

This policy explains when, how, and why we collect personal data about people.

Who we are

Wey Valley Chess – Surrey is a Junior Chess Organisation running chess tournaments, training and junior teams that play in the English Primary School Chess Association's annual inter area championships

How we collect your information

The only information we obtain about our members is provided by them directly. We do not collect personal data simply as a result of a person visiting our website.

We hold personal age data of junior players. That information about those players will be deleted once they become adults.

How your information is used

The personal data we obtain is applied for the following purposes, namely to:

- Obtain payment of membership fees to fund the operation of events
- Identify members on the English Chess Federation (ECF) Website.
- Submit details to the ECF to enrol Wey Valley Chess – Surrey players as ECF members.
- Register members to play for Wey Valley Chess in competitions which Wey Valley Chess enters.
- Submit results of matches played to the ECF for grading purposes or to other organisations running competitions in which Wey Valley Chess participates.
- Communicating with members for the purposes of running the chess events, including selecting and organising teams.

Consistent with this, the contact details provided to us by players may be used to contact them by mail, telephone, fax or e-mail for the purposes of the Chess organisation.

We will hold personal data for as long as a person is a member and for a reasonable time afterwards.

This data is held pursuant to the legitimate interests of Wey Valley Chess which is the basis on which your data as set out is processed.

Who can access information

Unless required by law, we do not sell, rent or otherwise share personal data with other third parties.

Rights

Members can ask for a copy of the data we hold about them. If a member provides information about another person, it is their responsibility to ensure that the other person has given their explicit consent to the processing of their personal data.

Should you have any unresolved complaints about the way we process your personal data, you have the right to make a formal complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

Our website may contain links to other websites. This privacy policy only applies to the use of our website. We cannot be responsible for other websites even if accessed via links on our website.

Our website: www.veyvalleychess.org.uk

Review of this policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and we will place any updates on this webpage. This privacy policy was last updated on 19th June 2018

If you have any questions about this policy, please contact Pat Armstrong